

ALIA Access 2010 Conference
Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre
Wednesday 1 – Friday 3 September 2010

ACCESS AND EQUITY – BOOKS IN THE SKY DIGITAL LIBRARY SERVICE

Katherine Howard, Royal Society for the Blind, SA

Issues related to access and equity for users of digital information are not always considered by libraries as part of the collection development and acquisitions process. Books in the Sky Digital Library Service in conjunction with SA Public Libraries is using digital technology as a means to facilitate social inclusion for people who are blind or vision impaired. This service and the issues around access and equity will be discussed.