

QUT Information Professionals Alumni Group and the ALIA New Grads Group hosts

“The 3rd International EBL 2005 Mini Conference”

Thursday, 20 October 2005, 9:00am-3:00pm
Gardens Point, QUT

Program

9:00am Welcome

Session 1: Evidence based librarianship in practice Venue: V Block Room 714

9.10am Lisa Cotter, Larnich Harije, Suzanne Lewis and Ingrid Tonnison
Central Coast Health, Australia
Adding SPICE to our library intranet site: a recipe to enhance usability

9:30am Scott Hamilton
Queensland University of Technology, Australia
Helen Thurlow State Library of Queensland, Australia
Transaction log analysis @ State Library of Queensland

9:50am Glenna Westwood
University of Lethbridge, Lethbridge, Canada
Evidence Based Librarianship in the Humanities: An Application for Second Language Learners

10:10am Fei Yu, Jan Sullivan & Leith Woodall University of Queensland, Australia.
What can students' bibliographies tell us? - Evidence based information skills teaching for engineering students.

10:30am Morning tea

Session 2: Using the evidence to provide better services and resources Venue: V Block Room 714

11:00am Marian Morgan-Bindon & Leona Jennings
Gold Coast City Council, Australia
Evidence-based morsels – a taster of strategic decisions based on operational data

11:20am Wendy Abbott
Bond University, Australia
Persuasive Evidence: Improving Customer Service Through Evidence-Based Librarianship

11:40pm Cecily Martina & Brad Jones
Southbank Institute of TAFE, Australia
Employing evidence: does it have a job in vocational libraries?

12:00pm Lunch (Venue Artisans Café)

Session 3: A few reflections Venue: H Block Room 405

1:00pm Ann Gillespie
EBL Blog Co-ordinator
The role of blogs in scholarly communication: exploring the evidence from the 3rd EBL Conference

1:20pm Gillian Hallam
ALIA President
Building an EBL profession: the Research Exchange Partnership (REAP)

1:40pm Emma Nelms
QUT Information Professionals Alumni Bursary Winner
Reflections on the EBL Conference!

2:00pm EBL Student Volunteers Panel
Volunteering at the EBL Conference: lessons learnt!

2:30pm Wrap Up

2.45pm Close

This event is proudly sponsored by the Faculty of Information Technology, QUT